

Rotaract Australia Award Selection Criteria

Version 1

August 2022

Nominations open 1 September and close midnight AWST on 25 September. Finalists announced October 29 2022 at the Zone 8 Conference dinner.

General Requirements

Nomination Process

Anyone who is currently a member of a Rotaract club in Australia, Timor Leste, Papua New Guinea, Nauru and Solomon Islands, or was a member during the period for which nominations are valid, can submit a nomination. Self-nominations are accepted and all nominations will be confidential. Nominations will be seen by at least two members of the Rotaract Australia Executive.

In the event that no eligible nominations are received, the award will not be awarded.

Required Documentation

Nomination materials should consist of the following:

- Submission through the online form, and
- An email containing further evidence, in the form of any relevant photos or videos that may be shared with the general public, sent to Laura.Telford@rotaract.org.au.

Eligibility

The awards are generally limited to those nominations which meet the following eligibility criteria. Please see specific award criteria for any additional eligibility requirements.

- For club awards, provisional or Chartered Rotaract clubs situated in Australia, Timor Leste, Papua New Guinea, Nauru, or Solomon Islands;
- For individual awards, members of provisional or Chartered Rotaract clubs situated in Australia, Timor Leste, Papua New Guinea, Nauru, or Solomon Islands;
- Activities undertaken between 1 July 2021 and August 1 2022.
- Any projects or events that, or individuals who, were previously recipients of an award last year, 2021-22, are not eligible for nomination under the same category for this year.

Award Retraction

In the event that information comes to light after an award is presented, that would have invalidated the recipient had it been known at the time, an award may be redacted at the discretion of the Rotaract Australia Executive.
